A fresh blend of soulful R&B, hyper-frenetic Hip-Hop and catchy Pop melodies -- the Ellis Uniques musical experience provides a taste of a new era in music. 14 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: R&B Pop Crossover, POP: Today's Top 40 Show all album songs: 35 Miles Songs Details: Founded in 2003, by producer/lyricist Richie Skye and vocalists E. Maria and Kieshawna Hall, the group originally formed (under the name Naughty Dred) to perform a track for the Invazion of the Bodyshakers album, an international release for the Bodyshakers, a premier dance organization based in Southern Maryland. The song became the first official single from the soundtrack, garnering quite a bit of notoriety after the group toured regionally with the Bodyshakers. The group set its sights higher after that release and chose to continue recording and performing as a group. In 2005, the trio began work on its first studio release. During the summer of 2005, the group hit a roadblock in its rise to the top, when all of their recorded material was destroyed and Kieshawna, moved to Atlanta, GA to pursue other interests. She has since moved back to Richmond, VA and keeps in contact with the other group members and contributes as a talented writer for many Ellis Uniques songs. Now the group is ready to explode with a monster album filled, with in-your-face beats and a genre-bending style sure to satisfy even the most critical listeners. Collaborators include hip-hop production duo Tha Soundrome and rock veteran Nate of JRL and Nimble Wit Productions. The bulk of the album was produced by group member Richie Skye - churning out hits like the hypnotically melodic ballad Fade Away, the airy feel-good banger GO!, and the outrageously catchy first single, Monkey. After one listen critics and fans are sure to agree: Ellis Uniques is destined for stardom!
