Irish singer songwriter fuses strong melodies and wraps them in a Rock, Pop, Folk canvas. 12 MP3 Songs ROCK: Acoustic, POP: Folky Pop Details: An American Wake comes after two years of work in a very small room...in Boston, Massachusetts..... Irish singer-songwriter Flynn has spent several years working non stop at various recording studios on projects as diverse as a collaboration with Cher and The Farrelly Brothers (Directors/Producers of Dumb Dumber, There's Something About Mary) to Grammy Award winning producer David Kahne (Paul McCartney, Sugar Ray). Flynn has carved out a thriving career as an artist, composer and producer. After capturing the coveted, "Outstanding Debut Release" at the Boston Music Awards, in 2002, he completed what he calls his strongest selection of songs to date on "An American Wake" (Black Wolf Records.) These songs are being placed in various film and television projects giving Flynn a national reputation as a goto composer for commercial, soundtrack and film score compositions. He is in high demand with a steady stream of TV and film projects both as a composer and songwriter as well as his solo and band performances. Flynn's demand as a producer/composer has escalated recently after he was chosen to produce nationally known singer-songwriter Ellis Paul's recent Rounder/Philo Records release "American Jukebox Fables". The collaboration between Ellis and Flynn is much talked about in the singer-songwriter community. This release has been Ellis' strongest, best selling release to date. Ellis Paul calls Flynn, "A master-crafter of songs, sounds and soul."
