Her music captivates and delights her audience of two to seven year olds and provides interactive fun for children all over the world. The original songs on Nature Notes for Little folks gives children the opportunity to explore, experience, educate and enjoy nature's sounds and critters as they dance and move, sing and clap to the music. All the ingredients for a magical journey outdoors are in Maureen's original songs. The only requirement from the children is an appetite for musical fun and enjoyment. Through the music children express beat, experience the creative movement of animals, explore the sounds of nature's musical symphony and play along with rhythm of the rain. Let's Go Green educates children about recycled rhythm and children are enchanted as they dance and move with dancing snowflakes. Listen to the sounds of Nature Notes for Little Folks and experience the magic.
