"At his best here...a master at combining sharply drawn, incisive lyrics with irresistible pop melodies - plus the welcome addition of real heart. It's a winning combination." - Larry Nager, Cincinnati Enquirer "The CD still maintains the impertinence that makes for good rock 'n roll, punctuated by Fetters' cunning guitar. It is the most genuine, heartfelt rock album released by a local artist in years." -Rick Bird, Cincinnati Post "The accomplished guitarist's best work ever, ranking right alongside his top performances and songs from all his previous bands...dazzling, innovative guitar work" - Mike Breen, City Beat "I listened to the album and I'm really worried about Rob's mental state." - Rob's big sister, Nan.
