Socrates is a wise, young fish who lives in a dangerous underwater world. His sister is sick, the ocean is overfished, and growing pollution threatens his very existence. Tragedy causes him to leave his home in the Aegean Sea and focus his life on finding answers to the problems threatening his marine environment. He comes face-to-face with danger at every turn. However, these extreme circumstances often lead to his developing unusual and often comical friendships. The experiences of his new friends help Socrates to understand the oceans' delicate balance. Working together is their only hope for survival. His adventures and travels turn him into a hero. Life's trials mold him into a legend. Come along on Socrates' adventures and you'll meet some new friends along the way!
