Brooke and Danny Parker have lived in the city all their lives until a terrible tragedy takes their parents from them and their world is turned upside down. They are forced to move to the backwoods of the Ozarks with their relatives they barely know. Adapting to a life without their parents is difficult enough, but now they have the added challenge of adjusting to country-living. When Brooke meets a handsome farmhand named Levi, things begin to look up, but a discovery made in the farmhouse attic puts a whole new twist on the potential romance.
