"You have to experience real ugly in order to recognize true beauty." This short read has a little of everything: inspiration, testimony, comedy, self-help, and mostly perspective. Being a work of fiction, this book allows readers and new readers to open their eyes to the differences outside their own social circle.

"Hawk I Fly High" was written to bring something different to the public with the purpose of continuing the hard work of Martin Luther King Jr.; for us all to be one people. Author: Hawkins III, Melvin O'dell
