URBAN/R&B: R&B Rap mix, HIP HOP/RAP: Rap Details: My name is Thomas Jones alias Boss T. I was born in Witchita Kansa. I grew up as a little boy always singing and finally became a rap singer and a writer. I moved to Dallas, TX in 2002 where I met Fredy Muks and we became partners practicing in our apartment.We performed in different musical events and had a dream of ours to be independent some day. With that in mind, Fredy and I met Ndanda Kossovo who is a vocalist and he inturn introduced Marilyn to the group. Being a group, we decided to blend African music with American hip hop, which is a mixture nobody had done. I loves music,traveling, painting, bicking and church. Marilyn was born in Philadephia Pennsylvania and raised in Houston TX. I was blessed to work with some of the best artist in the south, singing choruses with artist like Juvenile, south park Mexico and featured in songs with LIL FLIP, Big Pokey and many others. I met Ndanda who is a singer from Africa and he invited me to join the the group named B.N.B where I also met Boss T and Fredy Muks. Boss T is an excellent rap singer and Fredy Muks is the producer for the group. They both like my voice and I was introduced to the executive producer Mr. Simon Wana Mbua. We change the group's name from BNB to Legacy One, of which I'm proud to be part of the team. Out of singing, I'm a family person and love cooking, swimming, reading and dancing.
