A brilliant combination of pop and rock that can entertain every teen, and their parents too. 5 MP3 Songs
POP: Today's Top 40, ROCK: Modern Rock Details: Treat yourself. Love to yourself. Make love to yourself. Experience to the songs crafted by one of the most talented and witty unsigned artists around -- the unique, the daring... Dangerous Betty. So rare is it today to find an artist who not only writes the music, but executes it as well, and in such a way as to leave audiences dazzled. She is unstoppable on stage, with her combination of musicianship and stage savvy, having sung and played with various bands since she was 16 years old. She has a powerful, yet sweet tone that sounds like no other singer in today's market. An exotic and alluring appearance is an added feature to her marketability. As anyone in the music industry knows -- it takes a perfect combination of musical talent, and performing ability. Dangerous Betty has this combination and more. She has earned her road wings as background singer, sharing the stage with artists such as Jon Secada, Issac Hayes, Debra Gibson and Julio Iglesias. As her talents were taking her around the world singing the music of others, she had the opportunity to focus on her own writing, which she had been doing since she was 13 years old. She has co-written with successful writers such as Jon Secada, and great industry producers such as Desmond Child and Emilio Estefan have been interested in her music. And the public is ready for what she has to offer. There is a void in the record industry. Music that is mainstream, yet controversial. High quality but still simple enough for the average music lover to enjoy. She is an artist with a personality that can connect with the younger audience as well as their parents. A complete package...ready to go. Ready to please the fans, ready for them to please themselves just by listening.
