He has unique style of singing, his voice sound that of Aaron Neville, Smokey Robinson and Marvin Gaye the one who sings like an Angel. He is also a Songwriter, Guitarist, and a Producer. He shared the stage with Tecumsay Robert, O.J. Brown, Yatta Zoah, C.C. Barnard and many Other Liberian Artists. At the time E-man was the Business Manager and Lead Guitarist for the Music Messiahs Band. The Group he founded in 1979 while in school. Upon graduation with his talent, the Music Messiahs Band became number one in Liberia. E-man left Liberia and came to The United States Of America and released his first Solo Album "HELP ME LORD". On Oct. 5th of 2002 He released a Single "THE WORLD -in memory of 9-11. E-man has always worked hard His third project and second album "FOREVER LOVE" a mind-blowing album which was released Dec. 13th 2003. Now His latest release "Ellen For President" was instrumental during the presidential election in Liberia which enhanced the campaign trail on a level that Ellen Johnson-Sirleaf became victorious. She is now the first female president of The Republic of Liberia and the first ever on the African Continent. E-man is a dedicated and versatile artist. His passion for music is so great. It all begins when he was six years old. He started singing in his church junior choir. Where he started to learn how to play the guitar. Times were hard - his mother could not afford to buy him a guitar. So little E-man got creative and made him an Olive Oil Cane Guitar by cutting into the cane and attaching a flat wood and used sardine keys as tuner, and different size of fishing lines as guitar strings. One evening he was practicing under a plum tree. Then came a man who he did not know asked E-man if he could trade his Olive Oil

Cane Guitar for a brand new acoustic Guitar. He agreed to trade and since then E-man has been a happy one. He was inspired by the sound of Motown artists like Marvin Gaye, Smokey Robinson, Aaron Neville, James Brown, George Benson, Quincy Jones, Al Jarreau, Gladys Knight, Dionne Warwick Bob Marley, and Sonny Okosun. His dream is to make it in the Music Industry, To make contributions to mankind, and for his music and message to reach distant places through out the World.
