Digital loop-based improv with voice guitar. 9 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Weird Jazz, JAZZ: Free Jazz Details: Giles Thomas and Patries Wichers, respectively guitarist and vocalist from Bateau Lavoir have been working on a side project together. The working relationship goes back ten years. The approach remains, no-repertoire, improvised music. Empty loops are created filled with sound during the performance. The playing of the instrument has an equal relationship with the manipulation of the loop. To achieve this we decided to place the loop at the front as the musical event reject the history of loops being used as accompaniment. These recordings are live unedited works as they would be heard in performance.
