Details: What people say: "...smart songwriting that takes cues from Neil Young and the Beatles, with vocals that easily connect with the listener." - The Denver Post "Dedicated and blossoming with a mature and accomplished sound, Hello Kavita is on the short track to standing atop Denvers pantheon of musical talent." - Jonathan Bitz, Syntax Magazine "Can you guys play something more upbeat, like Journey?" - woman (who was in fact, hamboned) at Forest Room Five. "Listen closely, and youll hear swelling slide guitar lines that recall Mazzy Star, stark strums of an acoustic guitar with doubled, hard-panned vocals la Either/Or-era Elliott Smith, the rollicking, ornate pop of Wilco, and the understated eloquence of Neil Halstead/Mojave 3." - Denver Westword Critics Choice by Dave Herrera "...Hello Kavita showed again why its one of Denvers most promising acts of the moment." - Westword live review 12-21-07 "Hello Kavita. We hadnt seen these guys in a few months, but they sounded tremendous at last weeks Sea Wolf show at the Larimer Lounge. The bands nuanced songwriting and solid performance almost outshone that of the evenings headliner a difficult task indeed." - Ricardo Baca, The Denver Post 1-25-08 People who are interested in Neil Young Wilco Ryan Adams should consider this download.
