Quirk Rock slash Canadian Mod 9 MP3 Songs POP: Quirky, ROCK: Folk Rock Details: Quirk Rock slash Canadian Mod. The White Stripes and Beck join Simon Garfunkel, and they all move to Halifax. Jeff is a songwriter, arranger, producer, vocalist, guitarist, and bassist. "I'm Not", and Jeff's new albums ("One of a Trilogy", "Life, Death, Love, Hate, Hope, and Bad Apartments", "Three of a Trilogy", and the "The Underdog's Guide to Love, Rejection, and Uprisings") complete his discography. Jeff has toured Canada, playing shows in the Northwest Territories and eight of ten provinces. He has performed live on television in Edmonton (Wired, A-Channel), live and live-to-tape on radio stations such as CIUT Toronto, CKDU Halifax, CJSR Edmonton, CHUO Ottawa, and he went top-10 on CKLU Sudbury's chart. He has performed in London, Manchester, and Glasgow in the U.K., and Jeff even did a set at the Cavern Club in Liverpool, which he still can't believe. He has performed at the Festival of the Midnight Sun (Yellowknife, 1998). Five different Toronto acts have covered five of Jeffs songs in live performances; and one of these artists recorded a song of his. He is a regular host and performer at the Free Times Cafe in Toronto, and has also written for and performed in musical theatre (Lost Carnival's "Death's Diner", "Waterworks" and "War - The Musical"). Jeff's website is jeffstone.
