CAP-1 O.N.E., Styles are different and has a southern flavor, but can appeal to all genres because of their versatility. 10 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Hardcore Rap, HIP HOP/RAP: Southern Style Details: O.N.E and CAP-1 are first cousins from South Park Houston, Texas. O.N.E. started his rap career about 15 years ago, and Cap-1 about 19 years ago. Though they are solo artist their styles can blend seamlessly. Coming from a musical family that has been in the music business for at least five decades, they've been performing since they were small kids. These two have performed at many a venue from Texas to New York, all the way to Las Vegas, and are comfortable on any stage in front of any number of people, and they WILL rock the crowd. They write their own lyrics separately and come together like magic. This is the first project the first blooded cousins were able to work on together due to contract obligations, concert dates, and schedule conflicts. This unbelievable lyrical duo will blast on the scene with O.N.E.'s album, O.N.E. on O.N.E. Then a compilation, and finally CAP-1's album Lyrikal Pain. All three albums will feature both artist and many other artists, and will be under the label O.N.E. 4 Da Money Entertainment, and CAP-1 Productions.
