Details: Pipaluk Cecilie SUPERNOVA are a phenomenon under the northern star. Out of Denmark they released three albums and played stages in NYC, Paris, Amsterdam, Stockholm, Roskilde Festival and their hometown Copenhagen. "- Pipaluk Cecilie unite with simple means the profoundly emotional with a vulnerable eroticism." a Danish critic wrote. "- these women stand fully exposed and they could very well be heralding the next phase in music." an American critic wrote. Pipaluk Cecilie are singers and songwriters, and friends since highschool. Cecilie studied in NYC to become an actress and Pipaluk was dancing in Paris. The band SUPERNOVA emerged out of an artists night club in Copenhagen. A fan recorded what was to become the first CD "Call Now". Later Pipaluk Cecilie and musicians Troels Bech and Tomas Ortvad got together in a mansion in the beautiful Danish countryside where they recorded "Leave A Message" on a mobile studio. SUPERNOVA then recorded a collection of songs in their studio in Copenhagen and released latest album "Sorry the number you've dialed has been disconnected".
