A synergistic two singles mix of raw old school soul (Sunshine) and in your face rock-soul (If I Can't Have You). 2 MP3 Songs in this album (7:39) ! Related styles: URBAN/R&B: Soul, ROCK: Funk Rock Details: Randy Darbonne was born and raised in Lake Charles, Louisiana and combines his southern roots with an international influence to create his own musical style today. His music is deeply rooted in the R B, soul and jazz style. Randys influences has been the great singers, Marvin Gaye, Bobby Womack, Sly and the Family Stone to name just a few Randy moved to Oakland, California and began his musical journey with various bands and in 2004 embarked on a solo career. His first Cd, Radio Soul paved the way to the future of Randys dream. Three years later, Randy produced and launched his new Cd, Lets Talk About Love on his own label, Kool Like That, Inc. Randy continues to record and with the release of Sunshine and If I Can't Have You, he pays tribute to the days of the two sided 45 single. The fact remains that you can only play one song at a time and he believes that these two songs has the makings of what the radio listening audience is looking for today. The soulful love ballad of "Sunshine" lends itself to the adult contemporary listener while "If I Can't Have You" will appeal to a listener's funkier side.
