Features Native American Flute alone and together with guitars, percussion, cello, voice. Rooted in the traditions, living in the modern world. 11 MP3 Songs WORLD: Native American, WORLD: World Fusion Details: NIGHT. The domain of Mother Sun's brother. Migrating birds call to one another and to the stars that guide them. Sweetly scented blossoms awaken memories and desires. May our dreams be gentle and bring us wisdom. May the flute call someone special to join in the dance. Ron Warren - from liner notes. Ron Warren's second CD remains rooted in the traditions while living in the modern world. The music celebrates the night with full arrangements for the band and vibrant solo Native American flute tracks. On this CD, Ron plays an assortment of flutes hand crafted for him by Danny Bigay, J. P. Gomez, Ken Light and Colyn Peterson as well as keyboards and shakers. We are honored to have Grammy nominated world musician Dawn Avery join us on cello for three tracks. We are also proud to introduce a gifted young singer, Janice Torres on two tracks. Ron's regular band includes Brian Kooker on acoustic and electric guitars, Leonardo Lucini on bass and Alejandro Lucini on drums and percussion (yes, the Leo and Ale are brothers).
