My style is R&B with a Caribbean influence. 9 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: R&B Pop Crossover, URBAN/R&B: Soul Details: Sarah has picked up several instruments over the years, among them piano, violin, and guitar. Along with these instruments, she has also picked up a variety of musical tastes, her influences ranging from the late Aaliyah to Carlos Santana to Bob Marley to Tori Amos. These different styles all manifest themselves in her music. Recently, Sarah has formed a back-up band to accompany her during her live performances. This band is comprised of other young talented local musicians, who are each solo artists in their own right. She is also the Chief Executive Officer of Royal-T Records. The label, based out of the D.C. Metropolitan area, began in late July 2002, received its business license in October of the same year, and now houses several talented acts in the genres of R&B, Gospel, and Rock/Alternative. Sarah has recently graduated in May 2003, cum laude from Howard University, with a B.A. in Television Production. She is currently pursuing a Masters in Education from Howard. She plans to continue to develop Royal-T Records, and establish a nonprofit organization. Her first singles, "Crush", "Crush (remix)", "In Your Arms", "Love", and "Never Leave the Dancefloor", from her forthcoming album "Saranade", have recently been completed at Woodworks Studio. She has also recorded "Forever" at her newly-established Crown Jewel Studios. For more information on Sarah and/or Royal-T Records, check out royaltrecords.net.
