She produced the highly collectible 80's single "Drive My Car", by Nastyfacts, and became a lead singer for their recent reunion CD. The CD, aptly called From Here to Reality, follows their hysterically fun appearance on ABC-TV's Wife Swap. For collectors of relality TV this CD contains "The Wife Swap Song" - written and performed as a duet by Ramona and Andre, "Let's Get Lost" from the show and also the song Ramona sang that landed her audition for Reality TV. For 80's music fans this is a must-have record! It is perhaps the best collection of Ramona Jan's new and also previously unreleased music. Check out the sound bytes!
