the foundation of the thirty3rd sound lies scattered on the outer edges of hip hop and drum n bass. 20 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Alternative Hip Hop, ELECTRONIC: Drum 'n Bass/Jungle Details: in an age where innovation is limited to genres of an already defined sound, thirty3rd strays from expectations of the normal with one soul purpose . . . raw creation. this powerhouse collective consists of 3 lyricists and 3 producers, all combined and then divided among 3 individuals. the foundation of the thirty3rd sound lies scattered on the outer edges of hiphop and drum n bass, with every ounce of past and present musical influence that may contribute along the way. each member shares similar visions of music and in the same moment, contrasting styles and techniques which underlie their main path. their wordplay reflects poetic, spoken word style, galactic yet planetary rhyming. with hiphop's degradation in the new millenium and lack of inspiration from it's name brand corporate image, it is often seen as stale by those with a critical view. from this divided perception derives hiphop's underground, an alternative to the surface or facade of what hiphop isn't. although this realm is intermittently tainted, this is where the art is born and where the artist remains. stirring up a mass of followers, is another form of music recognized as drum and bass (d n b). as you are reading at this very moment, electronic music such as d n b, is revolutionizing our world from it's very own underground. unfortunately, as for any form of music involved with societal standards, there is a rise and fall already written for the future of drum n bass . . . "our vehicle is hip hop fueled by the electronic underground movement." for more info on group, and to download full tracks from other thirty3rd releases also available for purchase: go to thirty3rd.com
