LATIN: Latin Jazz, JAZZ: Latin Jazz Details: Latin music hasnt seen this kind of diversity for some time, let alone from just three people. Yet TRES is able to achieve a unique balance of various styles within the Latin genre, mixing their skills and diverse backgrounds into a sound unlike anything youve heard before. Their rapidly escalating popularity is responsible for their growth out of Austin, TX where the trio is based and got their start. Combine that with the reviews (not one of them negative) of their debut CD TRES, and youll see how this band has set their own stage for success - and if you havent heard of them yet, you will. Consisting of guitarist Kurt David Phillips, bassist Mike Rosch and percussionist Shang Dely, TRES continues to play a pivotal role in the further development of Latin and Brazilian jazz in Texas and in the United States. Their live performances are intimate yet exhilarating - a combination of emotion that is not easily achieved. Their debut recording TRES features thirteen tracks of original music from the trio, and takes you on a musical journey around the globe. I really feel weve captured our sound genuinely on this record, says Mike Rosch, bassist for the trio. Were thrilled that its resonating with people and cant thank them enough for their amazing compliments. It makes what we do so worthwhile and makes me look forward to the next album. Each member of TRES has a background as a professional musician, recording artist, and composer. Together they produce exceptional instrumentals that paint musical colors from around the world. Transcending the limitations of a typical trio, TRES often sounds like a four or five piece group even with just three performers. Dont be fooled by the fact they are a 3-piece or that their live shows are so personal, this groups sound and emotion can fill a concert hall.
