Having worked in the Therapeutic Music field for 10 years, Alis intention in creating the music on this CD is to uplift and inspire, and includes music written and performed for creative movement, yogic mantra, meditation, relaxation and stress reduction 8 MP3 Songs NEW AGE: Ambient, POP: Piano Details: Released in April of 2006, Alis first commercial solo compilation, Grace of Doves offers a sampling of music for many moods from ambient to pop - and is designed to be utilized as background music for films, and in therapeutic applications, such as expressive arts therapies and healing arts modalities, as well as in informal settings. With influences reminiscent of Sarah McLaughlin, Peter Gabriel and Enya, Grace of Doves takes the listener on a journey of dynamic moods through the use of layered vocals, acoustic and electric guitars, mandolins, solo piano and keyboards, evocative cellos and violins, ethereal flutes and creative percussion. Having worked in the Music Therapy field for 10 years, Alis intention in creating the music on this CD is to uplift and inspire, and includes music written and performed for creative movement, yogic mantra, meditation, relaxation and stress reduction, spiritual reflection and metaphysical expression. It also includes the love ballad, I Will Wait, written for families and loved ones who are involved in war, far from their home and families, yet not forgotten. It is Alis hope that you find something on this CD that takes you to a place of beauty, joy and divine understanding, and that you emerge from this sonic experience with inspiration to embark on your own personal journey of creative expression and peace-filled compassion.
