Why yes, the Bluez Brothaz are surefire! Don't let the roaring 20's savvy gansta look album cover fool ya! And, no their not singing the blues. The Bluez Brothaz is already causing much sought after musical havoc in Louisiana, Texas, Arkansas and Mississippi. The rap-quartet four male member group delivers catchy memorable lyrics with grimey south tracks that are packing the dance floors across the 3rd Coast. The Bluez Brothaz, who resides in Louisiana consist of: Toine de Don, Dogg Catcher, Tony Montana, and Mike Turna, all ranging in ages from 21 to 27 years. Together they have the same mind set when it comes to their careers, and that is securing a mark in the entertainment industry and maintaining their status. They're known for calling the "World" their home and the "Truth" is their hood. Their debut album, "Slaughterville. Population: 4" holds 12 heavy tracks that bring together a fullness of steady eclectic sounds of interest within the album. The singles "Ride", which features Lil Boosie, and "Taka Vodka" are infectious and keep things bobbing and bouncing along with head nodding to the beats with a mix of melodic Funk, and catchy Rap phases. The club thumping track "Taaka Vodka" keeps the fans lifting their drinks in the air while bouncing to the high energy song as demonstrated in their video. The Bluez Brothaz have rocked shows at The Plaza, Club Rayne and Club 701 in Lafayette, Louisiana, and brought the gumbo across state lines into Texas with jaw-dropping performances in Galveston, South Padre Island, Beaumont and Houston Texas. The Bluez Brothaz (soon to become a household name like other chart toppers) ably demonstrates facets of their artistic personality from writing to performing to co-producing. Together they make a perfect blend of thumping sounds with dominating lyrics. They're making their mark in the industry with promises of more of the best! Stay tuned... 2005 Kompari Entertainment Group-the KEG Kompari E. Rudison, National Publicist
