More of Bobby's unique "blu funk," about which Blues Revue Magazine assures, "this one will AMAZE;"... praise from LITTLE FEAT's Bill Payne to guitarists from Bobby Parker to Nils Lofgren.(click "Bobby Manriquez website") 13 MP3 Songs BLUES: Funky Blues, BLUES: Rockin' Blues Details: *WARNING: this is NOT a traditional blues work. Contains dangerous levels of funky, rockin' soul. After considerable acclaim w/ his first solo CD, (see RollingStone Review, Blues Revue Mag/ 2001, All Music Guide: Another Shade of Blue(s), and Bobby Manriquez/ Soundbytes (at bobbymanriquez) Bobby Manriquez has completed his second solo CD, "PRAYIN' the BLUES (blu funk)" Humble thanks to the talented group of artists whose support and taste helped mold my project. It may be of interest to know that: Mike Stern's awesome and nationally recognized style graced the bands of Miles Davis, Jacco Pastorius and Blood, Sweat and Tears. Gary Grainger was the "bomb" with the bass on John Scofield's "Loud Jazz" CD. Among Myles Mattison's 2003 tours were Kenny Loggins, Michael McDonald, Mariah Carey, and the late Ray Charles. The Nighthawks would not be the Nighthawks without the very distinguishable harp playing of Mark Wenner. It would seem "Steady Rollin" Bob Margolin's association with Muddy Waters is a jacket he wears proudly, as do I with players such as Chaka Khan's RUFUS bass- backbone, Mr. "Tell Me Somethin' Good" himself, Bobby Watson. Lastly, one of the nicest human beings and one of the most talented, gifted musicians I've had the privilege of knowing was a player in Neil Young's band, as wet! as Beatle Ringo Starr's band, and of course, a we)! known personality in the super E-Street Band presently, Nils Lofgren. Hopefully some of it will rub off on the rest of us; Without further naming,are no slouches among us. b-side-blues Publishing, ASCAP copyright 2004
