Details: Chris Eccles is a DJ and Dance Producer, working out of a small cliff-top studio on the West coast of Ireland. - Producing around 4 or 5 original tracks a year, his work is found at the front of the box of most European club DJ's and his classic "Castlewellan" ranks among the top-played tracks in the Med. - He also appears as a DJ at European venues, presenting his own interpretations of classic trance and techno tracks, given a unique high-BPM treatment and sonic signature by his use of computer technology and creative filtering. - "Castlewellan" is firmly established since release as one of the "instantly-recognised" techno stomp tracks that will fill any floor, anywhere, and was the #1 SoundClick dance download throughout the Summers of 2006/7. The middle-Eastern strains and cacophonous filters on "Bar Migdal" have turned heads at many Mediterranean venues, while his "Terry's Ride" was once described by a leading European DJ as having "... defined the chill ...". - Chris can be booked at: bookings@kbodanceor through well-known European booking agents, and is consistently ranked in the top 20 DJ's working out of Ireland.
