A little Hank--Conway--Waylon----this is Country music from the heart of the Ozarks---None better We look for Skaggs and all for help here--- 10 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Bluegrass, COUNTRY: Traditional Country Details: Dave Talley wrote the world famous comedy hit song "Every Time I See A Pig I Think of You" and --"If That Woman Was A Mule" and his great tribute to Waylon Jennings, "The Waylon Wall". Now his new album features some of the best country original stuff to surface in a few months. Every song has a story and at every interview Dave gets to tell where his love is---Country Music; trail riding; strumming that old guitar in front of the camp fire and riding them thar horses---Kids go crazy over Dave because he is really just one of them---You gotta hear every song on this album to really find the answer to getting aboard with Dave and loving him and his wife and family. Old Sounder carries quite a tale with the song telling it all---Emily Anne McCall just sorta fell into Dave's songs with a kick that is gonna be a number one song for Dave-- Exit is the salvation for that Grand Ole' Opry Showdown and that fact is growing with each song---so if you need a little tight love feeling then Junction City is your kitty--My Little Cowgirl--WOW!--what a way to remember such a tragedy with a heart full of love and respect--Thank you Dave for giving us this moment---Listen to these songs and give us an e-mail if you are not deeply touched with "Hill Country Hits, Volume One. Thanks Dave for the honor of knowing you--- Gene Strasser--Antique Records---Your Friend ---(Martha too)
