One of the most profound CD's to ever be released. Because of its unique way of using Spoken Word and some genius tracks to motivate a negative world to open up and receive some positive energy, this CD is a must have. Indulge in audio perfection. 10 MP3 Songs SPOKEN WORD: Poetry, URBAN/R&B: Soul Details: Living to represent his talents through his name, "DeJah" has arrived in true poetic form to let the world know his timely messages are "of God". Being driven by a God given commission, DeJah seeks to influence and redirect the negative path this present society has taken, into a utopia like mind frame. He believes that helping people positively see past what is in front of them, helps to create change, which in turn resurrects this dying world. DeJah addresses life issues such as spirituality, love, culture, and social matters within the form of poetry and drama. His unique characterizations compliment the profound words he speaks granting the listener deeper access into his thought provoking depths. The year of 1997 marked the dawn of DeJah's poetic ministry that has since illuminated every soul that has come in contact with it. DeJah has left his mark at such major venues as Morehouse College, Seton Hall University, C.W. Post University, the famed Nuyorican Poets Cafe, the Apex Museum, The African Poetry Theatre, The Billy Holiday Amphitheater, The New York Comedy Club, and The N.Y. Black Expo. He has also helped to uplift audiences at motivational seminars such as Success Is In Your Hands featuring Hasani Pettiford, Eight Hours of Power featuring Jewel Diamond Taylor, and the Hosea Williams "Feed the Hungry" benefit event. Included within his already established achievements, DeJah has performed for a host of community events and church organizations. With each show he reflects energy and excitement which inevitably builds a strong and faithful audience that remains anxious for each performance. This talented and positive poet consistently performs with heavenly confidence to renew the human conscience. DeJah has just released his debut CD, 'DeJah's View'. An insightful and heart convicting piece of work that challenges each listener to take a serious look into their spiritual walk with God and fellow man. The perfect combination of the spoken word and music will automatically validate this CD for ANY listener. It is a MUST that every person experience this masterful recording at least once in his or her lifetime.
