A beautiful album of love songs, performed with a unique mixture of Soul, Latin and RnB. Dexter employs a tender strength in this luxurious production of romantic grooves offers 12 timeless songs from the heart. 12 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Love Songs, URBAN/R&B: Soul Details: The London Times described Dexter Moore as a "musician of amazing virtuosity and a songwriter of rare depth. He has that elusive element to his music. It's called soul". Dexter walked away from a major recording deal when he was just 18 and has followed an independent path ever since then. Now based on the Central Coast of NSW, he has had significant success during his 20 plus years in the music business. He produced a No.1 hit for the Exponents (NZ), appeared on the BBC cult show "The Old Grey Whistle Test", has supported the best-known Australian music acts, and his song "Zoom" won a national song writing competition. Dexter's music is noteworthy for its considerations on philosophy, and he has a passion for martial arts. He has also been involved in theatre projects and acting for television and movies. "Romantica" is an album of heart-felt songs. It is dedicated to romantic love, to loving yourself, loving one another and loving life
