J Welch Jr. from Northampton, Ma. His integrity and influence made this album happen. Our son, John, just received his orders. He will be going to Iraq at the end of July, 2004. We are Generation Gap? We are minstrels on a mission. We are parents who want to say, "Thank you, Soldier." Our newest release does just that. It is a compilation of many tried and true songs written by Generation Gap?. It is a collection of songs that our fans chose from previous albums and wanted to see together on a new CD. The theme song, "America's Pride" is our newest creation. It was inspired when we were told that John was going to Iraq. It reflects the pride of the parents and families of our sons and daughters in the military. We walk with our brave soldiers to the places where they will leave us behind. The planes and trains are ready to make the journeys, but we are NOT ready to say goodbye. Instead of goodbye, we say, "See you later." And we pray that we will indeed see them later. Our hearts are sad. Our eyes are filled with tears, but we are so proud of our children and this great country that they serve. "Our kids are fighting to keep us free." Our fathers fought in WWII defending the same principles that our kids protect today. That's Mr. Bill with his lovely bride, Dorothy, on our album cover. The photo was taken in 1943. Bill and Dorothy are the parents of Gregg {musician extraordinaire}. We are damned proud to say we are Americans. "Our kids are fighting to keep us free." Our children are putting their lives on the line to defend the rights and privileges this great country offers. Our soldiers deserve our support, our loyalty and our love. We are the band called Generation Gap? We use a question mark at the end of our band name because we truly believe, "There's no such thing as a generation gap with God, love and great music." Faith in God is the major cornerstone that helped to build our great nation. "THE TRUTH" is in the Bible. Jesus set us free. "Deny this and you got a piece of me" are but a few of the words from the song, "America's Pride." T-together E-ach A-ccomplishes M-ore. With God all things are possible. We Wish You love, Gregg Shar
