"earth shakin', dream makin', vow breakin', heart achin' love " is a novelty song.. up tempo .. traditional country the title tells the story. "things i can't throw away" .. you still probably have some little reminder of a lost love. (a gift you can't part with or a picture) "should i be good" ... i know you wondered about that as you were growing up.. you can hear all about it in this song. (country rock).. "don't hold your breath". that expression holds true to most anything you are definitely not going to do. "j. d. the hood" .. i'm sure there was one of these guys in every crowd. very popular but dangerous. "i love what you do to me" ... enough said. you'll love it. "i like the sound of that". this man found the perfect lover. she gave him everything. you guys will wish you had a girl exactly like her. listen.... "i wanted to go there with you". a sad story (true) about a woman who lost her true love to death. this song is country pop and maybe one or two of the others are. "over you" steve warren tells it like it is. listen and you'll hear just how and why he is over her. "i promise to love you" was recorded by the talented musicians at holston valley recording services in bristo, tn. and my good friend steven patrick. this album pleases me completely. i hope you will listen. if you like country it will please you too.
