After getting out of school in 1999, Mike started going up at the legendary Houston Laff Stop and soon developed his trademark combination of insightful social and cultural commentary with uncanny, unique impressions. In 2001, Mike made his television debut on Comedy Centrals Premium Blend, and a year later he was selected Best Local Comedian by the Houston Press. 2003 saw Mikes debut on the nationally syndicated morning radio program The Bob and Tom Show. Mike is now a regular favorite on the show; he can be heard on two Bob Tom CDs (Camel Toe and We Just Landed) and is a part of the Bob Tom Comedy All Stars theater tour. In May 2007, The Late Show with David Letterman invited Mike to perform as part of Impressionist Week. Mike MacRae is currently based in Austin, TX, and is a regular performer in comedy clubs all over the country. In addition, he was the national spokesman for IvyBlock and has lent his distinctive voice to dozens of popular anime cartoons, including Super Milk Chan on Cartoon Networks Adult Swim. His first CD, Hovercraft, was released in 2007.
