Tribal percussion among electronic beats, atmospheric moments suffused with heavenly voices, references to a melodic ebm, and moments of superb electro. 10 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Industrial, ELECTRONIC: Dance Details: mindFIELD is Gabriel Shaw, Regan Miller Stacia Tucker. * Side-Line magazine "Singularity can be described as an electronic pop release, but with some extra power and bounce. Shaw avoids falling into the cheap clichs of the genre, but focus on refreshing sound sculptures." * ReGen magazine "mindFIELD takes the better parts of the two sounds and makes them into a superior whole. It's a fine combination of the style and structure of Haujobb combined with the sensibilities and tone of Unlearn-era Psykoonik. It is kept so compellingly interesting and bereft of many of the EBM clichs." * Chain D.L.K. webzine "It's rather difficult to choose any tracks on this release as 'better' than others as they are all unique in their own ways and all beautiful in others. 4 out of 5 stars!" * ClubHaven.net "mindFIELD have a gem on their hands by blending and perfecting eclectic tastes to create a sound that is emotionally driving and ever evolving. With this bold self release they are poised to be huge. I beg you to buy this CD, you will not be disappointed!" * Stillborn webzine "Singularity has tribal percussions set among the electronic beats, atmospheric moments suffused with heavenly voices, winking references to a nave and melodic ebm, and moments of superb electro. We shall probably hear more said about mindFIELD, and they will be beautiful words." * Club-Metropolis.dk "Singularity is one of the best albums released this year. It offers us everything: the right melodies, excellent vocals and the American sound we don't have in Europe." * WrappedInWire.com mindFIELD 'Singularity' made the website's frontpage "Best Albums of 2004" list.
