Traditional Details: The warmth of the holidays pervades every note of this collection of yuletide favorites!

Robert Parker leads you through the full gamut of the musical and expressive range of the King of Instruments in this collection of beloved Christmas carols from England, France, and Germany. This CD is a holiday favorite in our home, and we're sure it will become one in yours as well. It's the perfect accompaniment for wrapping (or unwrapping) holiday gifts! Its warmth and merriment will turn those hectic holiday moments into moments to cherish and remember...and you may even find yourself singing along with these holiday favorites! Robert W. Parker is a prizewinning, critically acclaimed composer and performer with over twenty-five years' experience in musical theater and thirty years' experience as a liturgical musician. Called "a delight" by the press from Connecticut to California, he has performed for Presidential inaugurations, appeared on stages throughout Europe, the Caribbean, and Japan, and has been seen (and heard) on both national and international television. The music of Robert Parker is dedicated to rediscovering the classical sound, making music that is totally traditional, yet totally new.
