Blues, baby. Electrified and funky like a monkey. Combines elements of Chicago, Delta and Texas and whips it all up into a tasty blues cocktail that'll warm your soul. This is NOT your average blues band. 10 MP3 Songs BLUES: Electric Blues, BLUES: Funky Blues Details: The DelCats is a Delaware-based blues band comprised of guys that been around so long, they remember when electricity looked like just another fad. Somehow, they managed to summon the energy to put this sweet blend of blues, rock, funk and soul on tape. Like funky blues? Check out what they did to "I Just Want To Make Love To You". Want to swing and jump? Click on "If You Want Some Lovin'". If you dig them jazzy chords, give "Pay Me Back" a listen. Like it a little heavier? Tune in on "Blues Don't Trouble Me" and "These Blues". Searing slide guitar, skin tight bass and drums, the warmth of the hammond and a gravel-voiced blues belter. How can it get any better? "In The Pocket" features some guys who have been involved with some seriously heavy major-label bands in their past, but that name-dropping thing is just so tacky, so we'll leave it at that and let the music do the talkin'. Pop this one in your player, kick back and enjoy. And just see how long you can sit still. It's all about the pocket, and this one's deep.
