Life happens--Tim's songs tell stories of real life with a contemporary traditional country sound for listeners of all ages. 11 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Traditional Country, COUNTRY: Cowboy Details: Nashville Recording Artist and Washington State native, Tim Hadler, has performed on the Grand Ole Opry and opened for the likes of Emmylou Harris, Noel Haggard, Daryl Singletary, Jack Green and Little Jimmie Dickens. Tim, the youngest of nine children, was born in Vancouver, WA and was raised in his early years on a farm in Amboy, WA. He learned to play the guitar from his oldest brother, Marvin and music was a large part of family activities. After graduation from Battleground High School, Tim attended Eastern Oregon University in La Grande, OR and Clark College in Vancouver, WA. He moved to Nashville, Tennessee in 1992 and began singing demos and playing anywhere he could. He was noticed particularly at his Opry debut by Buddy Hyatt, a notable Nashville producer and outstanding musician. Their relationship expanded and Tim signed a recording contract with Buddy as his producer. For those that know Tim's music, "Homemade Love" continues with his contemporary traditional sound wrapping all the traditional country instrumentation with his contemporary, smooth voice. A number of singles are scheduled to be released from this album, the first being "Say Hello", which has been greatly received by radio all over the country. You will be captivated by Tim's style and diversity.
