Details: "It's About Time" Is a project that began with an idea that I'd like to put out a CD of my own material. I net worked it like anyone would. Through friends and Family I've been able to make a dream come true. I'm once again playing music with the best group of friends a man could ever ask for. It seems like only yesterday we all young guys hanging out and playing music together, but ts actually been more like 30 years. It still feels and sounds like magic! I hope you like it! Also, in the Liner Notes each song has the story of what inspired me to write the song. Here's a couple of EXAMPLES: BEST BOY While watching a talk show on child abuse they were interviewing a young boy who said he often wished he would die to escape being locked in a closet by his alcoholic mother. I wrote this song with him in mind. WHEN I THINK OF YOU While having dinner at the home of two of my very best friends the lady of the house suddenly became very teary eyed and started to cry. I asked what was wrong and she told me that the song playing on the stereo was a favorite song of her daughter (now deseased). Every time she hears this song it makes her think of her daughter and the tears just begin to flow. When I got home that evening I wrote this song for her and her daughter Debbie. We all have someone we miss and I hope this song comforts you during your moments of remembrance.
