South Jersey's finest progressive bluegrass band during the mid 70's, 80's and 90's has released their first CD. 12 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Progressive Bluegrass, COUNTRY: Bluegrass Show all album songs: Memories Of The Past Songs Details: The Full Moon Express was a progressive bluegrass band from New Jersey. The band played during the mid 1970s 80s and 90s mostly performed in southern New Jersey, Burlington, Camden and Gloucester counties with a few concerts out of state. A group of friends, from Holy Cross High School started the band sometime after they graduation in 1971. At the heart of the band was Jim Frazer on his Stelling banjo, and on selected songs Jim also played the dobro. Tim Henry was the bands lead vocalist, playing mandolin as well as guitar. Mike Boland played rhythm guitar and fiddle. Dennis Boland played lead guitar. Larry Marsh played bass and sang backup vocals. David Walsh also sang lead vocals, backup vocals, played rhythm guitar and sometimes mandolin when Tim was playing guitar on selected songs. In the early years of the band, the Full Moon Express played mostly traditional bluegrass. Songs from the Dillards, Flatt Scruggs, tunes like Foggy Mountain Break down, Red Haired Boy and Cripple Creek were among the groups play list. As the band improved we started playing songs from Hot Rize and New Grass Revival. We had a few of our own original songs as well in our sets; Jims Song a banjo instrumental written by Jim Frazer, Down and Broken Hearted written by Tim Henry, and Memories of the Past written by David Walsh. We also re-arranged contemporary songs into a bluegrass style; Ive Just See A Face from the Beatles, Amie, Friend of the Devil, Mr. Spaceman and many other pop tunes of that era. Not many bands stay together for as long as the Full Moon Express and this CD is just a sample of how much fun we had over the years. Thank You for your support, I know that you will enjoy this CD from the Full Moon Express so order now and take a look back at our:
