Suburban music, not country, not urban... electronic/guitar/vocal/pop. Electronic/guitar/vocal/pop 9 MP3 Songs POP: Today's Top 40, ELECTRONIC: Pop Crossover Details: From San Jose, Inner's brand new 2004 solo debut indie release "glo". It's "Suburban music", not country, not urban. Live guitars and vocals wandering over rhythm and bass horizons under smooth clouds of synth. Thoughtful, subtle, reaching out like the questions we ask our self. Check out the driving sound of "Right Here", the introspective beat on "What I Found", and the jump in "Taty"; The melodies of "Freedom Fighter", the rapture of "The Only Thing Not Changing", and the mind ringing "Under Your Breath". Nine cuts total. Maybe a bit Matchbox20 "Back to Good", Toad the Wet Sprocket, Green Day "Good Riddance (Time of your Life)" in Emo style.
