With passionate lyrics contagious melodies and a timeless sound, JOT is a band with universal appeal. Stellar songwriting and inspiring musicianship have led audiences to draw comparisons to artists such as Jeff Buckley, Coldplay, and John Mayer. After moving the group from Arkansas in 2001, founding members Bryan Mounce (lead vocals and guitar) and Eric Gustafson (drums vocals) teamed up with Phil Metzler (keyboards vocals) and Stephen Andrews (bass vocals) to create their own exciting brand of soulful rock n roll. Their innovative songwriting and inspired melodies have earned the band headlining spots at LAs hottest venues such as The Mint, Key Club and the world-famous Viper Room. In addition, their songs have been featured in the ABC sitcom Help Me Help You starring Ted Danson. Grammy winner, John Mayer, also personally endorsed the boys in his April 28, 2007 MySpace blog and wrote a glowing review of their song "How Much It Hurts" - Which he added to his own, personal MySpace music player. On June 14, 2007, in addition to being a featured artist, Just Off Turner reached 3 on the Adult [Contemporary] chart and 5 on the Hit chart on Clear Channels NEW! Discover Music site.
