Steven Richfield Mini Bio: Name: Steven Richfield Instrument: Vocals, Drums, Guitar, Bass, Piano Songwriter Birthday: March 6 Homes: USA (Miami The Keys Los Angeles) CANADA (Toronto) Having had many musical influences over time Steven Richfield has fused together Pop, Rock Hip Hop genres bringing us new, refreshing pulsating, pounds of cool rhythm along with extreme stylings that is taken the musical community and listeners world wide by storm. Steven Richfield's interesting story telling flavor delivers a heavy hitting punch, with fuel for the soul. His views on life, combined with the amazing sound arsenal he has at his disposal is how he shapes his music. His music has been described as Stories of emotion, interpreted into melodic rhythms. He has said My music comes to me from the vibes I get from people. He has also been quoted saying, To connect with another humans emotion is to feel the music of life. With the release of his first single Whoop Dawgy we can see and hear that we are in for a wild musical ride. The Label (American Bad Ass

Records) is so sure that everyone is going to love "Whoop Dawgy" that they had me call in the heavy hitters to help out with the dance remixes. So I did. On the Killer Klub Mix I just had to employ the assistance of Mix Master "Mo Beda" from the UK underground who most definitely enjoyed the opportunity to lend her magical musical touch along with her Euro heavy beats and dance club groove sensibility to the project. "Thanks Mo, you really gave it up for me on this one. Girl you're amazing!!!!" On the Latin Dance Mix right from Little Havana in Miami I had my long time friend and master of the Latin remix, "Keno" give "Whoop Dawgy" that fabulous Latin flavor with dynamic horn arrangements and percussive rhythmic grooves that make "Whoop Dawgy" explode onto the dance floor. "Once again Keno you're the undisputed king of the Latin Dance Mix, Thanks amigo!!!!" Then for the Behemoth Club Mix I told my boys that the only guys for this remix were "The Slamabama Crew" who through down the wickedest beat monster I have ever heard. They more than delivered with a high energy 9 minute slammin dance groove that keeps the dance floor pumpin and movin the whole time. What can I say other then "The Crew" has done it again! You guys are bad bunch of remix Mutha's this side of anywhere! Then finally my sincere thanks to the Bollywood Mix Master "Jali Jala" who labored endlessly in the studio to give us his unique eastern flavor in make the "Whoop Dawgy Bollywood Mix" a very cool sounding new dance mix that we're sure will delight not only our friends in the Bollywood community but also our other friends world wide as well.
