Tommy Fields is a singer/songwriter/composer based in the sunny, smog soaked city of Los Angeles, CA. Since transplanting to LA from Indiana, Tommy has performed, written and recorded with many different musicians and bands, most notably Duff McKagen, Matt Sorum and Slash (Guns and Roses) in the pre-Velvet Revolver band, and composers Jeff Cardoni and Kristopher Karter for the films Harold and Kumar 2 and The Other Side, respectively. Currently, Tommy is getting songs placed on many of the network and cable TV channels, including the shows One Tree Hill, Men In Trees, Reaper and the Bionic Woman. He also wrote, produced and performed tracks for several indie films including Gashole and Orgies and the Meaning Of Life. Tommy also works as a session singer on TV commercials and soundtracks. Look for two CDs being released by Tommy, summer of 2008. Overblue was a Minneapolis band that existed from 1994 - 1998. This Disc features "In My Country" which should be in the list of best pop songs to come out of Minneapolis in the last 20 years. Unfortunately, no one's ever heard it until now. Overblue never made a full release beyond the very well received Mono-Atomic 7" in 1995. Transporter Room is an LA / Minneapolis cross country project by previous members of Pleasant Stitch Bob DeMaa and Will Pierce focusing on electronic instrumental music ranging from Ambient, Tance, Trip Hop, and Electro. The song "Virge" Represents their first released track. Look for more Transporter Room in late 2008 - 2009.
