Details: Earthshine's music is frequently described as "haunting," "beautiful" and "soothing." Kris' songs focus on themes related to the natural world, the living creatures with whom we share this planet, personal experiences and people who inspire her, the complexities and trials of contemporary and historical life, and the injustices that exist in the human social matrix... and much, much more. Originally coined Transfolk by Scott, Kris prefers Mythopoetic music as a descriptor. "Take Flight" is the much anticipated follow to 2008's "Live @ Bob's!" It draws from Earthshine's catalog of nearly 100 original songs! In addition to songwriting, Kris Prinzing sing and plays acoustic guitar. Husband Scott sings, plays acoustic bass guitar, mandolin, "backcountry lute," and provides harmonies. Additional musicians include: Tim Todd on electric violin Ben Klein on flute Brad Edwards on percussion Kyle Brenner on cello Produced by Kris Prinzing Recorded, mixed and mastered by Gil Stober at Peak Recording and Sound, Bozeman, MT.
