Her debut cd was released on October 16th on Hollyville Records. The rest of America will soon hear what the buzz is all about. Fielding songs from some of Nashville's top songwriters Heather entered the studio with producer Mike Winnen and some of Nashville's elite session players such as Eddie Bayers (ACM Award Winning drummer), Mike Rojas (ACM Award Winning keyboardist), Jeff King (electric guitar), Kevin Grantt (bass), Pat McGrath (acoustic guitar and banjo), Glen Duncan (fiddle and mandolin) and Bruce Bouton (pedal and lap steel). What they got was just what she wanted "an album that was more like what you'd expect from Keith Urban or Kenny Chesney. More guitar oriented and out front sonically. A rockin' female country album with some tender touches." Country music fans are sure to enjoy this fiery, blonde beauty. Heather was born in Torrance, California. The daughter of a Mechanical Engineer and a teacher, Heather and her family lived in many places in the United States and around the world. The one constant was music. Her parents say that she sang before she could talk. Music consumed her life and she has been performing in one form or another around the world. Heather has had a lifelong passion for music and people. Last year, she was fortunate to find the independent record label, Hollyville Records who signed her. While living in different areas of the U.S., she acquired a taste for a variety of musical styles. Her iPod has everything from country and rock to jazz and pop. Her playlists jump around from artist such as Trisha Yearwood, to Diana Krall, to Nickelback and then to Kelly Clarkson. This appreciation for many genres of music has contributed to her musical style and broad variety of songs on her debut CD while still staying true to the country format she loves.
