A tasteful blend of contemporary country with traditional country 10 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Modern Country, COUNTRY: Contemporary Country Details: Jason Whiteds blend of honky-tonk, country, and a hint of bluegrass is enjoyable, reminiscent of days sitting on the back porch with friends foot-tapping and singing along with the chorus. Delivering a range of delicate, smooth vocals, Whited draws similarities between George Strait, Clint Black and even Garth Brooks. The melodies on Big Time are catchy and uplifting, leaving the listener humming along to a string of strong tales of uplifting experiences and positive turnarounds. Spending his days as a teacher and nights as a musician, Jason Whited has come into his own with his sophomore CD, Big Time, and his debut single-song release, Big Time, reached the No. 1 spot on the TOP 100 ECMA Country chart and grabbed the number 1 spot on the EURO TOP 40 Most Played chart. With almost two decades of performing and recording experience backing his hard-work and diligent efforts while pursuing a music career, Whited has pulled out all the stops! Big Time is exactly that it has all the expected ingredients of a Big Time production; jam-packed with the unmistakable sound of Nashvilles finest musicians playing top-quality songs, all orchestrated by band leader extraordinaire Joe Spivey, a multi-talented musician who is considered one of the best fiddle players on Music Row and a fourteen-year member of the John Anderson band. Whited, a self-admitted perfectionist, worked diligently alongside George Clinton, and together they produced an album they are both extremely proud of. Its a winner, George remarked. Jason agreed Big Time is all he had hoped, and dreamed it would be! Perhaps this high school teacher from Middle Tennessee, with a voice thats been described time after time as pristine, who clearly enjoys singing has his site set on the Big Time in a big way. One thing is for certain by no means is the singer making a trite statement when he says, I hope you enjoy the music as much as I enjoy bringing it to you. Jason Whited is a stylist in the truest sense, and the emotion and confidence his vocals exude while bringing listeners his music is up-lifting and down-right refreshing. Big Time is a collection of strong tunes impeccably executed! Whited co-wrote the title-track, Big Time as well as I Went Down To Nashville, Wrong Thing Right, Lyin Together, and self-penned I Know Im Goin To Heaven. Jasons former J T Country Acoustic Duo partner, Tom Lamb wrote I Forgot To Thank Her. After hearing the demo of Let Me Down Easy, Jason contacted co-writers Scott Allen Metro and Don Paul Moore and said, This is a terrific country ballad, it has all the qualities of a classic traditional standard, Id really like to cut it. Whited is proud to be the first artist to record Steady As She Goes co-written by Terry Brown and Aaron Tippin, and also Love Makes A Fool Of Us All, penned by Nashville hit-makers Skip Ewing the legendary Max D. Barnes. The last track on the album is a cover version of Hank Williams Im So Lonesome I Could Cry. Whited said he wanted to record it because; its one of the saddest and greatest country songs Ive ever heard.
