Tuneful, soulful, songwriting in a rock/pop style driven by strong piano playing and guitar in the tradition of Laura Nyro, Elton John and Sting, with jazzy vibey vocals compared to Joni Mitchell, K.D.Lang , Kate Bush Jewel. 11 MP3 Songs ROCK: Acoustic, EASY LISTENING: Mature Details: Mix a little of the jazzy Joni Mitchell, earlier rock style of Sting, earthy Americana of K.D.Lang, new sound of Nora Jones, and the creativeness of Kate Bushuhm? Well let's see what others are saying about the writing and performance of pianist/singer songwriter, Joan Bujacich.....Joanie Beau! "In many ways, Bujacich represents what is best about indie artists: a dogged persistence and a passion for their craft. She takes a musical approach that is difficult to pigeonhole, incorporating pop, jazz, classical, and rock influences into a sensual musical stew." "Joan Bujacich has taken her many influences and made distinctive music that is clearly her own. Thanks to Tour Baby, she will get the opportunity to share it with us." Dave Madeloni This column by Dave Madeloni was first published in our local newspaper, Vermont's Brattleboro Reformer, on Thursday, October 2,2003. "I would describe your music very romantic, sensual, jazzy.....very much the music of today" "The two of you play beautifully together" (Referring to Joe Bilotti and Joan performing live Sept 22, 2003) "Wow amazing.... well what is interesting is to realize this is live, I thought I heard everything. Again intriguing new terrain covered in arrangement and orchestration." Don Slepian host of Art Music Coffee House Radio Show: Joan Bujacich Joe Bilotti - September 22, 2003 "Joan Bujacich's CD A Fine Line has added such great quality music to my radio shows. This keyboardist/vocalist showcases her fine song writing on this outstanding release. It is a must have for any true music fan's collection." Joe Kelly - WVOF 88.5 FM Fairfield, CT live 365.com/stations/funk7 Joan's voice has been compared to K.D.Lang, Joni Mitchell, Kate Bush and Jewel and her song writing has been described as anything from a newer sounding Laura Nyro to Rickie Lee

Jones and Sting with a little humor from Frank Zappa. More often, she has been labeled the new Carole King of the New Millennium. Her music is labeled as that of piano music, but not as lounge as Nora Jones. You might find her on the VH1 circuit, but if you see her on MTV then I wouldn't suggest playing her music. -Modern Mark KSCU Radio Review Joanie- Vocals Keyboards Joe Bilotti - Guitars Sue Williams - Bass Paul Ossola - Bass Dennis McDermott - Drums Marco Giovino - Drums Special Performances include Mark Roshler - Pedal Steel, Erica Boras - Cello and Randy Crafton - Percussion Written and Produced by Joan Bujacich Musical Director - Joe Bilotti Recorded and Mixed by Sal Mormando - IIWII Studios, Weehawken, NJ Mastered by David Torrey - DRT Mastering, NH 2002
