The Secrets Of My Love album is a culmination of Johnnys best musical influences on a Pop level fashioned as a compilation of love songs. Refined with League of Artists Producer Charlie Lewis, these new songs not only bring Johnnys songwriting and vocal abilities to light, but also his recording engineering and electronic production talents. Conceptually written about loves many secrets, Johnny sang, wrote, performed and programmed his new songs in house at Brace For Impact Records in Grand Prairie, Texas. Johnny approached this album one love song at a time with just him and his acoustic, but each tune directed him into the many popular styles of music with hints of his Latin influences. Love has many secrets and with the release of Johnnys current album and subsequent promotional tour the best-kept secrets are finally coming to light, his love for Pop music. The opening song Mi Chula has strong Latin rhythms and Johnnys bass playing pushing the song. Flavor Of Love, an R&B number, has Johnny bringing intimacy back into love with lyrical lines such as Refine me in the flames of your heart. The title track Secrets of My Love is a heavily influenced Spanish rocker song with Johnnys characteristic acoustic guitar under the drive. Reserved a pop dance song has Johnnys love solely set aside. The power ballad Youre My Diamond and Ruby has one of Johnnys memorable chorus flowing throughout the tune. Another R&B number Your Elegant Love with Johnnys vocal and lyrical formulas sets the tone for real love hidden away. My Lovinful, with its acoustic guitar and pop rocker lines, has simple but memorable acoustic guitar riffs as well as chorus. The song Flatter Me Deep with its danceable vibe and subtle rock guitars has Johnny down with the madness of her love. Die and Flip This Love with its poignant music poetically proclaims love never dies with lines such as Were not some faded epitaph, romantic figures on stained glass. The Dance song Velvet Red Sweet Dream caps the album on the club dance floor with more of Johnnys great vocal and lyrical abilities.
