At night, he morphs into loving husband and father and juggles family and work to find time to squeeze in a few moments to pursue his passion with music and cinema arts. Keith first became obsessed with electronic music in the early 80's by being exposed to the fascinating music of John Carpenter, and latter Tangerine Dream which are two of his biggest influences. Additional major influences include Enya, Deep Forest, Kraftwerk, Vangelis, and Christopher Franke. Most of his work reflects those major influences. Keith is also the president of indieOpolis, his publishing entity formed to produce his music and video projects. I believe that anything can be accomplished as long as you put your mind to it.
