I'm Pat Navarre. There is a sound that I have always heard and felt that has always shaken me right through my soul. I grew up in Los Angeles, California and I imagine I have been influenced by probably every Icon guitar artist known throughout the world as well as all music styles - Rock to Motown to Blues to Country...even people like Tony Bennett Frank Sinatra and so many more...I love it all. I have been fortunate enough to record with Rock Producer Keith Olsen and Hip-Hop R&B Producer Devante Swing and quite a list of amazing musicians throughout my years in the music business. But seemingly the music and the sound that I've always heard coming from my own heart has been my greatest influence. My motto is DARE TO BE ORIGINAL. Wanderlust the CD I believe is exactly that. Written to inspire and carry the human heart and imagination to a place of beauty and gentle thoughts of love, romance adventure and peace of mind.
