Beautiful, relaxing piano music. Each song is a journey to a different landscape of color and emotion. The final piece is an art song, with special guest Peter Hollens, tenor. 14 MP3 Songs NEW AGE: New Age, CLASSICAL: New Age Details: Rebecca Oswald's solo piano pieces have been enjoyed by audiences spanning the globe, in concert and on her recordings. Here, on "October Wind," you will find a sweet collection of original solo piano works that will lighten your heart and soothe your soul. These songs without words range from thoughtful and introspective to shining and exuberant. Perhaps they will speak to your heart, mind, or spirit. Melodies and harmonies can take one on untold marvelous journeys! The final piece on this CD, "Your Hands," is an art song, sung by tenor Peter Hollens. His stellar voice brings its beautiful text to life. It is a love song to a practical woman. The lyrical, soaring melody provides the musical framework around which the accompaniment dances. IndieAcoustic selected track 10, "Periwinkle Blue," as one of its 2005 Songs of Note, calling it "one of the best songs of 2005." Brett Campbell of the Eugene Weekly describes this CD as "lush, neo-romantic...Fans of George Winston and his kin should check this out."
