A Southern twang with a Brooklyn swaga. 8 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Southern Style, HIP HOP/RAP: Rap Details: Hailing from North Carolina Brooklyn, Sha Dirty has a magnetic and versatile flow as demonstrated in his hit single "Back It Up". He is inspired by the likes of the dirty south (Too Short, The Ghetto Boys, Ludacris, etc) and Brooklyn's finest Mc's (Big Daddy Kane, Rakim, Notorious B.I.G., Jay-Z, and Redman) As many upcoming artist, Sha Dirty waits his turn to collaborate with some of Hip-Hop's finest. He has been compared to many but he definitely demands a spotlight of his own. "Music is hard work and breaking into the industry is even harder", said Sha Dirty, but that doesn't stop this young man from persuing his destiny. His lyrics are irrefutable and will make any listener put their analytical skills to use. He has yet to gain the recognition that he neds to become the MC that he could be. Music is his life, his heart, and friend. Moving independently with his label Deep Water Music, he will soon be referenced as one of the craziest MCs and song writers around.
